SUBJECT Disclosing American Spies

BOB WINDSOR: It's now a federal crime to disclose the names of American spies. President Reagan signed that bill into law today at CIA Headquarters in Langley, Virginia, where he paid tribute to members of the intelligence community.

PRESIDENT RONALD REAGAN: You must serve in silence and carry your special burden. But let me assure you, you're on the winning side and your service is one which free men will thank you, and future generations honor you.
